Hotel Burglar Arrested

On 08/12/11, MBPD Officers were dispatched to a call of a black male attempting to break into the Princess Ann Hotel, 920 Collins Avenue #105, Miami Beach, Fl. Witnesses advised arriving officers that the subject, utilizing a brick, smashed the window to room #105. Once inside the subject was scared off when confronted by the occupants (hotel guests) and jumped out the window onto the ground.

The subject then went across to the Blue Moon Hotel, 944 Collins Avenue, Miami Beach, FL utilizing the same brick, smashed another window and attempted to elude police by barricading himself inside the empty room. Officers were able to talk the subject into surrendering himself, which he did by jumping out the same window to the ground.

The subject received multiple lacerations to his hands and arms climbing in and out of the broken windows, and was transported to Jackson Memorial Hospital for treatment by the MBFD.

The subject, B/M Undrae Barnea 38 Years of Age, was arrested and charged with:

1 count Occupied Burglary
1 count Unoccupied Burglary

1 count Criminal Mischief $200 - $1000
